THE WOMAN OF MIDDLE AGE.

活活 图 运流

Soon after reaching the age of forty almost every woman has remon to grow anxious about her health.
This time of trial with Its attacks of faintness and palpiterion, fits of terrible depression, violent headaches and back pains, needless foars and emotions, is right-ly dreaded by the weaker sex, but, with proper care, no serious ill-effects will arise. At this turning point of life Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have given a helping hand to meny thousands of distressed women who wore fighting a topeless battle against fickle health and waning atrength.

The best help for any woman who has reached the "fateful fortion" is the health-help given by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have a valuable strength ening effect, arising from the fact that they reinforce the blood supply, enrich ng and purifying it. In doing so they help to murish the starved overtaxed nerves and give new strength to the vital organs. By this natural process all pains and weaknesses are completely dispelled and a better, happier condition of health and spirits

Some people would get back their Ascot losses, or a good portion of them, over The Guller's very satisfactory and popular victory in the Northumberland Plate at Newcastle to-day. Every year we are reminded that the race is best known by its other name—the Pitmen's Derby. Well, this is the sort of result to have to a Derby, and as The Guller is a Northern horse, coming from little stable, his candidature was of stat the kind apart from the big possibilities held out by the book of form, to attract the tens of thousands of workers who are this week "playing the races. Bookmakers big. and little, particularly in the North will know that The Guller has won, as also that the starting price of 9 to 2 has pleasingly surprised his backers. If the pitmen are to

OUGASIONAL NOTES.

The inward service of Siberian mails in recent days has been far from satisfactory. Why the postal authorities in Shanghai choose boats that were never constructed as mail carriers to convey our Home mails on the last stage of their journey is to us a mystery. We will not mention the inconvenience caused to the Hongkong commercial world by such a service, but will express our sympathies with the poor lone bachelor who has always to wait an extra day for news of the girl he left behind him!
